cloud rap, tech house, smooth dreamy vocals, heavy reverb, atmospheric pads

Sunrise paints the eastern sky anew,
Another day, a chance to see things through.
But life's not meant to be a tangled thread,
It's simpler than the worries in your head.

Life is easy, let the burdens fall,
Don't hold too tight, don't cling to one and all.
Just let it flow, like water to the sea,
Unhook your heart, and happiness will be.

These fleeting years, a blink within the sun,
A precious journey, quickly to be done.
Why fill it up with sorrow and with strain?
Release the grip, and wash away the pain.

Life is easy, let the burdens fall,
Don't hold too tight, don't cling to one and all.
Just let it flow, like water to the sea,
Unhook your heart, and happiness will be.

The things we chase, they often fade away,
But inner peace can brighten every day.
So loosen up, and let your spirit soar,
There's joy around, just knock upon its door.

Life is easy, let the burdens fall,
Don't hold too tight, don't cling to one and all.
Just let it flow, like water to the sea,
Unhook your heart, and happiness will be.

So breathe it in, this moment passing fast,
Let go the hold, and make the good times last.
Life's easy, friend, if you just let it be,
Live happy now, and finally be free.

Easy Life
